

Saturday Morning Sessions Starting at 9:00 am

Location & Length	Grade & Session #	Session Description ( denotes session emphasizing DOK levels)
Room 222 (45 min)	9-12 #146	College Readiness Standards This presentation will inform secondary math teachers on skills/competencies needed in order for students to be successful with post secondary (college algebra) math courses. Presenter: Dr. Susan Lee, Mississippi Institutions of Higher Learning Co – Presenter: Dr. David Hebert, Co-Chair for Math College Readiness
Room 216 (45 min)	6-8 #147	Integrating Math, Science, and Technology to Teach About Hurricanes We will share lessons based on Hurricane Katrina for middle school math and science that use graphing calculators and PowerPoint presentations. Presenter: Sherry Herron, University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, MS Co – Presenters: Lida McDowell, Shelia Brown, Mary Peters, and Myron Henry
Room 218 (45 min)	6-8 #148	Using APPs on the TI-73 To Teach Area and Probability The AreaForm and ProbSim APPs will be used in conjunction with hands-on activities to develop the concepts of area and probability in the middle grades. Presenter: Linda Griffith, T³ National Instructor, University of Central Arkansas Co – Presenter: Belinda Robertson, University of Central Arkansas
Room 221 (45 min)	6-8 #149	The TI-73 Explorer: A Catalyst for Teaching Science in the Middle Grades See how the TI-73 can open the world of science to students in the middle grades. Let students design experiments and explore scientific concepts with this amazing tool. Presenter: David A. Young, T³ National Instructor, Fayetteville Public Schools, Fayetteville, AR